

Our Mission

The Afghanistan Engineer District, established in March 2004, conducts construction and engineering operations in the Central Asian States to facilitate the establishment of a secure and stable environment while promoting reconstruction and infrastructure development.

To learn more about business opportunities with the Afghanistan Engineer District, contact our Contracting Office at:

Afghanistan Engineer District
House # 1, Street # 1 West
West Wazir Akbar Khan
Behind Amani High School
Kabul, Afghanistan

Phone: 070-285412

Welcome to the Afghanistan
Engineer
District

Contractor
Open
House

So, you want to do business with the Afghanistan Engineer District?

There are three basic steps to doing business with the US Army Corps of Engineers:

- Register in the Central Contractor Registration (CCR) database. It is MANDATORY that all vendors be registered under the CCR program .
- Find information on available contracts through the Electronic Bid Solicitation Web site.
- Complete the appropriate forms from the General Services Administration (GSA) and return them to the Chief, Contracting Division of the Afghanistan Engineer District.

Basic Procurement 101

- Identify requirement
- Develop Statement of Work (SOW) and/or Technical Requirements
- Determine evaluation criteria
- Estimate cost (IGE)
- Conduct market survey – recommend source
- Justify other than full & open competition (if required)
- Obtain funding/Initiate purchase request
- Prepare solicitation and issue proposal
- Review proposals, conduct technical evaluation
- Hold discussions, get clarifications as necessary
- Award contract

CONTRACTING METHODS

- Simplified Acquisition Procedures
- Sealed Bidding
- Contracting by Negotiation

TYPES OF CONTRACTS

- Fixed Price
- Cost Reimbursement
- Time & Materials, Labor Hour & Letter Delivery
- Indefinite Incentive
- Agreements

COMMODITIES CATEGORIES

- Architect-Engineer Services
- Supplies
- Information Technology
- Construction
- Research & Development
- Environmental
- Transportation
- Personal Services
- Commercial Items
- Utility Services

